

Hope for the Family meetings provide families facing the challenges & questions that come with having an addicted loved one with:

- ❖ Education and guidance from professionals in the process of the family staying healthy as well as taking appropriate steps to help the addicted person;
- ❖ Information & links to resources in the community to help & support the family as well as and the addicted person;
- ❖ An opportunity to discuss & get suggestions regarding specific challenges & issues you are facing with your loved one in addiction; and
- ❖ Encouragement & support through fellowship with others who are also facing the challenges & questions that come with having a loved one in addiction.
